

We represent your interests from Central Europe to Central Asia

Finding the right business location is a crucial element of entrepreneurial success. A country's potential for success and possible risks must be taken into consideration. We have built an association of independent law firms bringing clients the advantages of experience in local markets and international capacity. Incor Alliance Law Office and LGP Attorneys-at-Law unite as two strong partners to represent your interests.

The team

INCOR ALLIANCE LAW OFFICE (IALO) is an international law firm representing clients in legal affairs in the Russian Federation and on an international level. The collection of offices in Moscow, St. Petersburg, Yekaterinburg, Vienna, and Zurich, as well as an extensive partner network including 48 countries, gives clients access to an enviable set of international resources.

LANSKY, GANZGER + partner (LGP) is Central Europe's leading law firm bridging businesses, national and international political institutions. The firm draws on excellent contacts in governmental networks both in Central Asia and within the European Union and provides clients with the capacity to work across several jurisdictions in a wide range of practices. Through the offices in Vienna (Austria), Baku (Azerbaijan), Bratislava (Slovakia) LGP is represented throughout Greater Europe and worldwide. LGP advises both private and public-sector clients in all areas of private and public law. In addition, the firm has celebrated strength in the public and near-public sector, having carried out numerous mandates in transportation (aviation, railroads etc.), energy, and communal services.

What we do

Incor Alliance Law Office (IALO) and LANSKY, GANZGER + partner (LGP) help clients pursue acquisition targets and structure new operations in Europe, Russia and Central Asia, thus enabling entry and access to the regional markets.

Immigration services

The success of international projects often depends on the prospect of staying and working in a particular foreign country. We are committed to providing to our clients with the highest-quality legal service in order to conduct business abroad and to gain full access to desired markets.

Corporate, M&A and tax practices

Our team develops strategically calculated, pragmatic legal solutions for firmly established companies seeking the best structure and economically sound management.

The close cooperation between Incor Alliance Law Office and LANSKY, GANZGER + partner (LGP) allows us to support Western European companies working in the Russian Federation as well as Russian investors seeking to make Austria an international hub.

We analyze the various options for becoming involved from the perspectives of corporate law, fiscal law, commercial law and labor law, clarifying which site is best suited for each project and, if necessary, develop the engagement concepts. Moreover, we assume supervisory and control functions in existing structures and advise corporate bodies.

Intellectual property practice

Intellectual products play an increasingly important role in our world today as a result of rapid developments in technology, scientific breakthroughs, industrial production, the arts and creative activity in general. To ensure exclusive rights in the commercial use of intellectual property, the owners must undergo a complicated registration process. International registration of Russian-based trademarks is a complicated process, largely due to lengthy procedure requirements in Russia. IALO and LGP offer a unique solution for prompt international registration based on their resources worldwide.

The legal regulations governing the protection, acquisition, use and disposal of the products of intellectual property are complex and can only be handled by highly-qualified and experienced legal professionals. IALO and LGP provide a full range of services in supporting IPR acquisitions and conflicts, as well as in enhancing security of intangible assets and innovations in Russian, international and foreign jurisdictions.

What others say about us

"(...) Incor Alliance has solid experience in corporate, organization and administrative legal support of business."
Dr. René Siegl, Austrian Business Agency.
