We represent your rights in Central and Eastern Europe - from the Danube to the Wolga

LANSKY, GANZGER + partner is part of a Europe- and world wide legal network. We have partner offices all over Europe as well as in Russia, Ukraine and other CIS countries. Our company follows the best-friends-system which means that we have a few local partners with well-organized political and economical contacts in their countries. Based on this best friends system we find customized legal solutions for every single case together with our native speaking Russian colleagues in Vienna and those foreign partners who are most eligible for your specific problem. With this fingerprint solution we combine a typical best-friends-system with our home-based beauty contest and serve our clients additionally as co-ordination center for the international legal department.

LANSKY, GANZGER + partner is one of the few law firms in Austria that has a specialized „Department for Russia and CIS“. For this team have been selected people who have western education as well as education of a respective country of the Commonwealth of Independent States, European way of thinking and perfect knowledge of Russian language. Many team members come from the respective country of the CIS, for this reason they are entirely familiar with traditions, mentality and the way of approach in these countries and can correspond to them. Thus in Vienna have been working lawyers and legal practitioners from the Russian Federation, Kazakhstan, Tatarstan, Moldova and Ukraine.

Moreover Dr. Gabriel Lansky is also admitted to the Bar in Brussels, Budapest and Bratislava.
